I shall start to-night to back up Marshal Soult and outflank Ulni. Woe betide the Austruuw if they let me gain a few more marches! I hope to concentrate my whole army between the Ix*eh and the Isar.

October 2d, Imperial Headquarters, Kttlingen:

The enemy are marehing forward and backward and appear to be completely puzzled.

(To Josephine.) I am starting for Stuttgardt, which I shall reach to-night. Our grand nuuuruvtv.s art* in full swing. The armies of WUrtemberg and Baden are joining mine. I am in good position* and 1 love you.

3d, Luclwigslmrg:

I am with the Elector (of WUrtemberg), who has definitely joined our Hide,

4th. No new developments. The* whole army is marching. The weather is splendid. 1 have effected my junction with the Bavarians.

(To Champagny.) I am at the Court of WUrtenuVrg, and, though conducting wnr, I am hearing Home very good music. The German style of .singing, however, striken mvt as rather queer. Are the rcHervists corning in ? How goon the conscription of 1800 ?

8lh. Between the 15th and 10th the* whole army will be between Donauwerth and IngolstiuU; there nevw will have been HO many tr<M)p» packtHl into no small a space.

8th, Donauwerth:

Yesterday I crosHwl the Danube and the Ixvh, I or* dered Augsburg nrul Aiehtteh to In* AtUcketl. Twelve battalions of grenadiers have* l>wn Hurrountiwi at Wer-tingea between the Ixnih «»tl the Danube; tmd the greater